There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood, and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

WOMAN'S CLUB BEGINS YEAR WORK WITH ENTHUSIASM

With a most auspicious opening the Woman's Club begins its year's work. On last Saturday afternoon at the Emerson school the first meeting was held. After disposing of the business of the club the meeting was thrown open to the women of Flagstaff but more especially was it honoring the Public School and Normal teachers.

Through the efforts of the decorating committee the assembly hall had been transformed with pleasing effect by rugs and flowers and dainty tea-tables while pretty yellow shades gave an autumn touch to all. In the receiving line stood Mrs. E. F. Honn, the new president of the club and with her the hostesses of the afternoon—Mrs. Pollock, Mrs. Leslie and Mrs. Colman Campbell. About 150 ladies were present. A short program was rendered. First an instrumental solo—Schubert's Impromptu—was given in a most pleasing style by Miss Grace Butler. Following this, the President in a few well chosen words welcomed both visitors and club members, then announced Mrs. E. M. Robinson, chairman of the Civics department, who told of the result of their work in enlisting the young people of the town in friendly rivalry in a vegetable and flower contest.

Ten boys and girls were present to receive appropriate prizes donated by the merchants of Flagstaff.

A musical number came next—a quartet—"Mammy's Lil' Pigeon" well rendered by Miss Metcalf, Mrs. J. M. Wilson, Mrs. A. F. Switzer and Mrs. Noble. The President next announced Mr. Bagby and Mrs. A. A. Johnson in a series of dances which were well given and loudly applauded. The program concluded with Mendelssohn's "Spring Song" arranged as a duet and splendidly executed by Miss Jordan and Miss Jensen. The remainder of the afternoon was given over to an informal reception—while little groups talked delightedly of clubs and club affairs over their tea and wafers served from the various tea tables presided over by club members.

Complimenting Miss Edna B. Jordan who leaves in a few days for Kentucky—the Advisory Board of the Woman's Club planned a little surprise at the home of Mrs. W. F. Griffin last Tuesday evening. Miss Jordan has been a most valuable acquisition to the club both as an officer and member of the various departments. On behalf of the Board the President, Mrs. E. F. Honn presented Miss Jordan with a little remembrance as an appreciation of both herself and her work among them. Dainty refreshments were served and a delightful time was enjoyed.

Mrs. A. A. Johnson was hostess at a delightful little card party last Friday afternoon, complimenting her mother, Mrs. Merritt of Hereford, Arizona. Six tables of five hundred enjoyed the afternoon after which a delicious two course lunch was served. Miss Anna Clark of Los Angeles and Miss Davis of Taylor, Tex., were among the guests.

A party of young people with Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Thorpe as chaperones enjoyed a hay ride to the reservoir last Friday evening. In the party were Misses Ingersoll, Howsley, Dunn, Moore, Baxter, Kelley, Heard, Rischel, and Parsons. Messrs. Compton, Ellinger, Sykes, Mills, Metz, Williams, Treat, Dickinson, and Anderson.

Mrs. Mayflower was hostess at a pleasant little thimble party last Tuesday afternoon from 2 to 5, honoring Mrs. Switzer. Her guests were Mrs. Wheeler, of Santa Barbara, Mrs. Lichky, of Philadelphia, Mrs. Sykes, Mrs. J. D. Jackson, Mrs. B. Hock, Mrs. Aaa Clark, Miss Kinsey and Miss Mayflower.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Frohell, of St. Louis, were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. Jakle. They are most enthusiastic in their praise of the interesting places surrounding Flagstaff having made a trip overland to the Canyon and visited Sunset Mountain and the Cliff Dwellings.

Miss Leloise Davis left Monday night for her home in Taylor, Texas, after a most delightful visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Griffin. Miss Davis was honor guest at a number of social affairs and leaves many warm friends in Flagstaff.

Mr. and Mrs. Lind, Miss Murray, Miss Cecelia Lind, Mrs. W. F. Griffin, Mrs. Dolan, Miss Clark and Mrs. and Mrs. Wheat spent Sunday at Colorado bridge.

Mrs. Doe pleasantly entertained on last Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Switzer who is a visitor. The out of town guests were Mrs. Ryan, Mrs. Merritt and Mrs. Switzer also Mrs. Marshall, Mrs. W. F. Griffin and Mrs. John Clark.

About fifteen young people succeeded in giving Raymond Ross a pleasant birthday surprise last Saturday evening. Games and dainty refreshments made a merry evening for all.

The meeting of the Household Economics department of the Woman's Club has been postponed from September 18 to October 2, and will be held at the home of Mrs. E. F. Honn.

Miss Emma Jones, Miss Alice Windes and Miss Jessie Stemmons spent Sunday as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Frier at their ranch south of town.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will meet at the home of Mrs. Mary Coffin, Tuesday, Sept. 21, at 3 p. m.—F. E. MILLIGAN, Sec'y.

The families of J. P. Wilson and Harlow Yeager spent Sunday at Meteor Mountain.

Rebekahs Will Celebrate 46th Anniversary

The Flagstaff Rebekah lodge will give a big banquet at their hall on the night of September 22nd to celebrate the 46th anniversary of that popular lodge. All Rebekahs and visiting Rebekahs, Odd Fellows and their wives will be invited to attend. The ladies intend to make it one of the real interesting and enjoyable events of the season and there is no question of their ability to do so.

Winners in Garden Contest

The winners in the garden contest arranged by the Civics department of the Woman's Club, were Ethel Compton, Genevieve Hestling, Eleanor Greenlaw, Preston Adkins, Refugio Lopez, Bertram McKinney, Helen Brown and Pansy Nichols. The prizes, which were quite substantial, were given by the following merchants: Babbitt Bros., C. A. Clark, J. C. Clark, Flagstaff Mercantile Co., David Tate, New York Store, Joe Blumberg, S. L. Finley, C. A. Keller, Marlard Drug Co., Crawford & Borum, Hunter Drug Co. It was the intention of the committee to ask every merchant in town, for contributions toward the fund, but the response was so generous, that more than enough was secured for the prizes before all had had a chance to contribute.

CORNVILLE ITEMS

The Cornville school opened Sept. 6 with a good enrollment.

Our fruit raisers are almost through with the 1915 peach crop. The next rush will be the apple crop.

Our cattlemen are in the saddle rounding up beef for the Jerome market. They are getting 6 cents and the stock is in good shape.

Richard and Sam Duncan have the contract to pick the J. O. Hurst apple crop. The lads are almost experts at the business and are making good.

Our farmers are preparing to cut the 4th and last alfalfa crop for this season. Next will be corn gathering time, then later on will come hay and killing time that will about windup doings for the year 1915, which has been a prosperous year for Oak Creek.

Our vicinity was greatly shocked by the death of Mr. C. J. Topping. Mr. Topping died at his home on Oak Creek Sept. 9th. Mr. Topping was a man that was fair and square in all his dealings and a man that always spoke a good word for his neighbors. We fully realize that we have lost one of our very best citizens. The remains were laid to rest in the Cottonwood cemetery.

AN OAK CREEKER

F. L. M. NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn returned to camp Monday.

Vick Llewellyn, the man who makes the Shea do just as he pleases was in Flag over Sunday.

Billie Link is running the loader here at present. It is hard to keep a good man down, so keep busy Billie.

L. H. Malbone, the stew without a stew, is stewing at this place during the absence of Dan Seymour the official stew who has gone for a real stew.

Jake Thompson is sky-hooking and Steel crooking on the steam pick at present. Rather high in the air for Jake but he likes the multitude all the same.

Mose, the man who sells clothes, drove here from Flag Sunday. It appears he forgot what he came out for and the reason he went back was to get home.
